

“Día de Los Muertos” Day Of The Dead

7 Days, 6 Nights, Culture, Dining and Cemetery Tour

October 31st marks the beginning of México’s “Día de Los Muertos” celebration. Day of the Dead events honor the deceased with vibrant festivities through November 2nd. Elaborate altars welcome spirits with food and flowers as people visit cemeteries to decorate gravesites and spend time with the souls of their loved ones. These celebrations originated with pre-Hispanic traditions dating back hundreds of years, including an Aztec festival honoring the goddess of the afterlife, Mictēcacihuātl. As the cultures intertwined, The Day of the Dead evolved to include elements of Christianity, including prayers for the souls of the deceased. Rather than a morose occasion, Día de Los Muertos is a celebratory holiday when the lives of those passed are commemorated. Whimsical skull decorations symbolize the cycles of life, death and rebirth. Experience the layers of history behind this UNESCO cultural heritage event in the land of its origins.

Tour Breakdown

DAY 1 | Oaxaca City | Saturday, October 29

Arrive at the Oaxaca airport, transfer included to the hotel for checkin. Tour manager will greet you at the hotel. Evening at leisure.

DAY 2 | Monte Alban and Oaxaca Cuisine | Sunday, October 30

Breakfast at the hotel. Our first visit will be to the market to learn about the ingredients of this local cuisine and the materials used for the celebration. We will also visit the archeological site of Monte Alban, a great city on the hill that reigned for 1200 years. This great city's remains reveal an already advanced culture with temples, pyramids, palaces, and ball courts. During the evening we will attend a cooking class and enjoy the preparations. Welcome dinner tonight. (BLD)

DAY 3 | Ocotlan, Coyotepec, Tilcajete, and Graveyards | Monday, October 31

Travel to Ocotlán to explore traditional markets, then continue to Coyotepec to take in the ornate trademark black Oaxacan pottery. Continue to the Tilcajete, a town famous for its "Alebríjes," wood carvings of mystic figures. Finally, travel to Jalietza, where artisans create lovely and elaborate products of embroidered cloth. In the evening, indulge in the customary foods of Oaxaca and see the Guelaguetza, traditional folkloric dancers of Oaxaca. After dinner we will visit the cemeteries to see the elaborately decorated altars with offerings to the dead. Colorful carpets of marigolds, sand, and sawdust adorn the streets welcoming the spirits. (B D)

DAY 4 | Mitla, Teotitlán del Valle, Tule Tree, & Parade | Tuesday, November 1

Breakfast served at the hotel. Today we will visit the archeological site of Mitla, "The place of the dead." Built around 800 AD, Mitla contains amazing architecture and striking grecas that adorn the walls. We will stop at Teotitlan to see the woolen and woven goods produced and the techniques using natural dyes to color them. You will learn about the production of Mezcal, a product made from the blue agave. You will see the distillery and try some of the products. Lunch is here at the distillery. On the way back to Oaxaca, you will see the Tule Tree, a huge Mexican cypress probably the most massive tree in Latin America. The Tule Tree is a 2000-year-old living giant. Tonight, we will enjoy the masquerade parade with people dressed in devil and skeleton costumes imitating the dead. They parade dancing from house to house, receiving food, fruit, candy, and chocolate from the families. (BLD)

DAY 5 | Oaxaca and Mexico City | Wednesday, November 2

After breakfast at the hotel, we depart for Mexico City, which is about a 5-hour trip. Lunch is en route to Mexico City. Check-in at the Barcelo hotel and have dinner at your leisure tonight. (BL)

DAY 6 | Teotihuacan and Archaeology Museum | Thursday, November 3

Breakfast at the hotel and early departure before we visit one of the largest and most important archaeological sites in Meso-America. Lunch today at the site before our return to Mexico City. Then enjoy a visit to the Museum of Archeology. Tonight we will enjoy our farewell dinner at Hacienda de Los Morales. (BLD)

DAY 7 | Return Flight | Friday, November 4

Breakfast at the hotel then transfer to the airport for your flight home. (B)
